ABOUT ME

Customer Success Manager with experience in B2B SaaS, account management, customer onboarding and training.
Co-founder of TakeOff CRM España, where I combine customer support with setting up processes, helping customers use the product and developing the business.
I also have experience in sales, administration, quality, regulatory affairs and team management in Spain and Italy. I understand business processes, test tools and connect business needs with digital solutions. I work with technical teams, although I am not a developer.

WORK EXPERIENCE

TakeOff (B2B SaaS for projects, quotes and work reports)
